1. Introduction

In 2015, the Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO) marked half-a-century of operations. As a regional inter-governmental organisation established among Southeast Asian countries, SEAMEO takes pride in its achievements over the years as Southeast Asian's leading organisation in promoting regional cooperation and human resource development in education, science and culture.

As part of the contribution to the Southeast Asian community and the occasion of SEAMEO 50th Year Anniversary, SEAMEO has initiated a project titled "SEAMEO Schools' Network" (The former name was SEAMEO 50x3 Schools' Network). The network aims to serve as a "Network of Sharing and Development" among kindergarten schools, primary schools, secondary schools, senior vocational and technical schools, special needs education schools, and TVET colleges in Southeast Asia.

The purposes of the project are as follows:

- To develop partnerships and networking platform among schools and educational institutions across communities and countries.
- To leverage capacity of school leaders, administrators, teachers and students through capacity development programmes and other contributions from 21 SEAMEO Regional Centres, SEAMEO stakeholders, and partners.

2. Definition of the SEAMEO Schools' Network

- The network is a platform to promote and encourage collaboration among schools/colleges in 11 Southeast Asian countries, namely, Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor-Leste and Vietnam.
- The network consists of the following levels of education: kindergarten, primary, secondary, special needs education, vocational and technical schools, and TVET colleges in 11 Southeast Asian countries.
- The network aims to leverage capacity of school leaders, administrators, teachers and students through specialised capacity development programmes, and other resource contributions from 21 SEAMEO Regional Centres, SEAMEO stakeholders, and SEAMEO partners.
- The network provides opportunities for participating schools/colleges to develop partnerships, share practices, and exchange teachers and students within the network.

3. Participating Schools

- Public and private schools/colleges at all levels such as kindergarten, primary, secondary, vocational and technical high schools, special needs education, and TVET colleges in 11 Southeast Asian countries, namely, Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Timor-Leste and Vietnam are invited to participate in the SEAMEO Schools' Network.
- The schools/colleges in the network have demonstrated the following attributes:
 - English ability of teachers to participate in the SEAMEO training programmes
 - Basic capacity of ICT and Internet access at the school/college
 - Strong interest and willingness indicators:
 - The school leader has clearly expressed an interest to participate in this SEAMEO network.
 - Clear policy and operational plan on partnerships with other schools/colleges in different communities or countries
